THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 2, 1977

Dear Admiral Turner:

The Office of Drug Abuse Policy will be conducting a review of our international narcotics control policies and programs as the last of the series of policy reviews aimed at all aspects of the Federal drug abuse prevention efforts. We plan to review the policy concerns, organization, management and personnel aspects of the programs as well as the effectiveness of our current drug strategies. The series of reviews will lead to a new Federal Drug Abuse Prevention Strategy in early 1978.

The International Narcotics Control Review will include such broad areas as:

1. The priority of International Narcotics Control within the U.S. Government, foreign countries and international organizations.
2. Management Aspects (e.g., interagency coordination, program selection, in-country coordination, information flow, etc.).
3. Role of International Drug Enforcement.
4. Development Assistance to Narcotics Producing Areas.
5. The Role of International Demand Reduction.
6. The Role of Multi-lateral Organizations.

The timing of this study is extremely important as we hope to complete the final draft by January 25, 1978. It is, therefore, essential that we begin as soon as possible. I would appreciate your designating by November 7, 1977, a senior representative from your agency to attend a meeting with me and my staff, at 11 a.m., on Tuesday, November 8, 1977, in Room 428 of the Old Executive Office Building, at which time we will discuss the scope of the review and the manner in which we can accomplish this goal. Please notify the Office of Drug Abuse Policy at 456-6666 as to the name of your designee who will be attending this meeting.

As in past studies, we plan to establish a working group which would include representatives from all the Federal agencies and departments involved in international narcotics control. I would, therefore, appreciate it if you or your representative would come prepared to designate one or more full-time employees who would be assigned to the International Narcotics Control Working Group. We plan to have the first meeting of this working group on Thursday, November 10, 1977.

Thank you for your assistance in this important effort and I look forward to working with your representatives.

Sincerely,

Peter G. Bourne
Director
Office of Drug Abuse Policy
